Application Process (Instructions for using Acceptd)

Some applicants have encountered delays when using the Internet browser 'Internet Explorer'. You may want to try 'Google Chrome' or another similar Internet browser.

Please note that the Profile should be in the student's name. Directors are welcome to assist students in setting up their profile.***

1. Under 'PROGRAM GROUP' select the ensemble for which you are applying.
2. Under 'PROGRAM' select your instrument.
3. Upload clearly named audio recordings. Recordings must begin with the student announcing their name and instrument.
4. Each student (after first announcing name and instrument) will record all required Excerpts as listed by the Region, and next record required scales as listed by the Region. These can be submitted as one file or split up into separate files by excerpt, please state your name at the beginning of every file that you submit.
5. Recordings of individual selections should NOT be edited or spliced, but rather performed continuously. Adjudicators are more interested in hearing an honest performance than a flawless one.
6. Attention should be given to the quality of the recording. The site of the recording should be as soundproof as possible.
7. Directors are urged to review application information and recordings before submission.
8. As of March 1, 2013, OMEA is using a third party provider, Acceptd LLC, for administering the online AllState application. For this service, the final step of the application includes a $10 application fee, paid by credit or debit card. OMEA will not receive this money.
9. Once your application has been submitted, you will receive a confirmation email and receipt. The email address you use will serve as our primary means of contacting you. Please check your email regularly and respond promptly.
10. Failure to meet deadlines or follow application instructions will result in rejection of applications.
11. Evaluation proceedings are confidential and final.
12. Alternates will be selected and used to fill positions as needed.
